Re: CVS Health Corporation
Incoming letter received January 5, 2015

The proposal requests that the board report annually to shareholders a congruency analysis between the company's corporate values and the company's and the CVS EPAC's political and electioneering contributions.

We are unable to concur in your view that CVS Health may exclude the proposal under rule 14a-8(i)(10). Based on the information you have presented, it does not appear that CVS Health's public disclosures compare favorably with the guidelines of the proposal. Accordingly, we do not believe that CVS Health may omit the proposal from its proxy materials in reliance on rule 14a-8(i)(10).

Sincerely,

Sonia Bednarowski

DIVISION OF CORPORATION FINANCE
INFORMAL PROCEDURES REGARDING SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

The Division of Corporation Finance believes that its responsibility with respect to matters arising under Rule 14a-8 [17 CFR 240.14a-8], as with other matter under the proxy rules, is to aid those who must comply with the rule by offering informal advice and suggestions and to determine, initially, whether or not it may be appropriate in a particular matter to recommend enforcement action to the Commission. In connection with a shareholder proposal under Rule 14a-8, the Division's staff considers the information furnished to it by the Company in support of its intention to exclude the proposals from the Company's proxy materials, as well as any information furnished by the proponent or the proponent's representative.

Although Rule 14a-8(k) does not require any communications from shareholders to the Commission's staff, the staff will always consider information concerning alleged violations of the statutes administered by the Commission, including argument as to whether or not activities proposed to be taken would be violative of the statute or rule involved. The receipt by the staff of such information, however, should not be construed as changing the staff's informal procedures and proxy review into a formal or adversary procedure.

It is important to note that the staff's and Commission's no-action responses to Rule 14a-8(j) submissions reflect only informal views. The determinations reached in these no-action letters do not and cannot adjudicate the merits of a company's position with respect to the proposal. Only a court such as a U.S. District Court can decide whether a company is obligated to include shareholders proposals in its proxy materials. Accordingly a discretionary determination not to recommend or take Commission enforcement action, does not preclude a proponent, or any shareholder of a company, from pursuing any rights he or she may have against the company in court, should the management omit the proposal from the company's proxy material.

Re: Shareholder Proposal Submitted to CVS Health Corporation requesting annual report on congruency of corporate values in political contributions

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The NorthStar Asset Management, Inc. Funded Pension Plan (the “Proponent”) is the beneficial owner of common stock of CVS Health Corporation (the “Company”) and has submitted a shareholder proposal (the “Proposal”) to the Company seeking an annual report on the congruency of corporate values and political contributions. I have been asked by the Proponent to respond to the no action request letter dated January 5, 2014 (sic) (the “Company Letter”) sent to the Securities and Exchange Commission by Thomas Moffatt on behalf of the Company. The Company contends that the Proposal may be excluded from the Company’s 2015 proxy statement by virtue of Rule 14a-8(i)(10) (substantial implementation). A copy of this letter is being emailed concurrently to Thomas Moffatt.

SUMMARY

The resolved clause of the Proposal states:

Shareholders request that the Board of Directors report to shareholders annually at reasonable expense, excluding confidential information, a congruency analysis between corporate values as defined by CVS’s stated policies (including our Environmental Commitment Statement and our employment policy on Equal Opportunity) and Company and CVS EPAC political and electioneering contributions, including a list of any such contributions occurring during the prior year which raise an issue of misalignment with corporate values, and stating the justification for such exceptions.

The full proposal is included in Appendix A.

The Company's letter asserts that its existing actions, consisting of internal review of company and PAC contributions, together with disclosures of the amount of PAC contributions, constitutes substantial implementation of the Proposal. The Company letter asserts that the existing disclosures would allow shareholders to assess for themselves the issues of congruency should they choose to.

Since the essential purpose of the Proposal is for the management to publish its own analysis of the congruency of its donations and to explain the exceptions made, the Company's actions fail to constitute substantial implementation for purposes of Rule 14a-8(i)(10).

ANALYSIS

The Proposal is not excludable pursuant to Rule 14a-8(i)(10).

The Company argues that the Proposal may be excluded from the 2015 Proxy Materials under Rule 14a-8(i)(10). The Company argues that its internal policies for review of congruency prior to granting of contributions, and its publication of the amount of contributions made, constitutes substantial implementation.

In order for the Company to meet its burden of proving substantial implementation pursuant to Rule 14a-8(i)(10), it must show that its activities meet the guidelines and essential purpose of the Proposal. The Staff has noted that a determination that a company has substantially implemented a proposal depends upon whether a company's particular policies, practices, and procedures compare favorably with the guidelines of the proposal. Texaco, Inc. (Mar. 28, 1991). Substantial implementation under Rule 14a-8(i)(10) requires a company's actions to have satisfactorily addressed both the proposal's guidelines and its essential objective. See, e.g., Exelon Corp. (Feb. 26, 2010).

Thus, when a company can demonstrate that it has already taken actions that meet most of the guidelines of a proposal and meet the proposal's essential purpose, the Staff has concurred that the proposal has been "substantially implemented." In the current instance, the Company has not substantially fulfilled either the guidelines or the essential purpose of the Proposal. The company's letter notably focuses on whether it has implemented the Proposal's essential objectives, no doubt because its "particular policies, practices and procedures" do not compare favorably with the guidelines of the proposal.

The Proposal at its core requests that the "Board of Directors report to shareholders annually... a congruency analysis between corporate values... and... political and electioneering contributions." The Company has done nothing to publish such an analysis.

The Proposal further specifies that the report should include "a list of any such contributions occurring during the prior year which raise an issue of misalignment with corporate values, and stating the justification for such exceptions." Again, the company has not fulfilled these core elements of the request.

The Company asserts that it has a policy governing political contributions made from corporate and Employee Political Action Committee (EPAC) funds, and that an EPAC

Steering Committee that reviews expenditures and ensures that the EPAC spends in accordance with general corporate values and objectives. This, combined with publishing an annual report of all federal and state political contributions on their website, the Company asserts, means it has substantially fulfilled the request of the proposal in the Proposal. However, in reality the Company has done nothing to provide a rationale for why numerous, seemingly incongruent donations have been made.

Internal review of how political contributions align with the Company's stated values is in no way equivalent to reporting such analyses to shareholders. Disclosure of the management's explanation of why there are incongruent political expenditures is the fundamental focus and purpose of the Proposal.

The Company mischaracterizes the essential goal of the Proposal as requiring management to perform an analysis of the congruencies between expenditures and corporate values, when it is clear that the essential purpose of the Proposal is to ensure transparency regarding such analyses. The Proposal is not satisfied by the current practice by which the Company makes seemingly incongruent contribution decisions behind closed doors, and then does not defend or disclose the reasons for its actions.

The Company goes on to argue that since it already does the required analysis of political expenditures, fulfilling the Proposal would create a redundant analysis: "The Steering Committee does not approve an expenditure unless it finds both legal soundness and overall alignment with the Company's objectives and principles. Thus, the Proposal essentially requests that the Company adopt an analysis of spending incongruencies after-the-fact when that analysis is already performed before-the-fact."

This redundancy argument is entirely unfounded. Nowhere in the Proposal does it state that the analysis should be performed after the fact. It would certainly be considered substantial implementation if the company put its analysis into an annual written report. There need not be "management inefficiencies" and "redundancies." The fact that a mechanism is in place as the Company asserts only makes it easier for the Company to fulfill the Proposal's request.

Review of Staff precedents confirms that failure to publish a core analysis requested by a Proposal renders the proposal not substantially implemented

The Staff has confirmed repeatedly that proposals will not be excluded despite a claim of substantial implementation if a core analysis requested by the proposal has not been performed and published. For instance, in McDonalds Corporation (March 14, 2012) the proposal requested the board issue a report assessing the company's policy responses to growing evidence of linkages between fast food and childhood obesity, diet related diseases and other impacts on children's health. The proposal also specified that the report should include an assessment of the potential impacts of public concerns and evolving public policy on the company's finances and operations. The company's substantial implementation argument was rejected, even though the company may have internally or implicitly conducted some of the assessments requested by the Proposal. Its reporting to shareholders did not fulfill the guidelines of the Proposal in disclosure of an assessment.

Another example shows that publishing related information from which shareholders might undertake their own analysis is not equivalent to publishing the requested analysis. In Verizon Communications, Inc. (February 5, 2013) the proposal requested that the company's board of directors report on how Verizon is responding to regulatory, competitive, legislative and public pressure to ensure that its network management policies and practices support network neutrality, an Open Internet and the social values described in the proposal. Even though the company was able to cite a variety of internal management policies located on its website regarding net neutrality, the actions reported did not include the requested analysis by the board directed to shareholders.

Similarly, in Alpha Natural Resources, Inc. (March 19, 2013) the proposal requested that the company prepare a report on the company's goals and plans to address global concerns regarding fossil fuels and their contribution to climate change, including analysis of long- and short-term financial and operational risks to the company and society. The Staff did not find substantial implementation where the company had failed to disclose any analysis of long and short term financial and operational risks to the company and society.

In addition, numerous other company attempts to exclude proposals under Rule 14a-8(i)(10) have failed where the company has provided public disclosure of some, but not all, of the elements of reporting requested. See for instance Marathon Oil Corporation (January 22, 2013); Dominion Resources, Inc. (February 28, 2014), NIKE, Inc. (July 5, 2012) (requesting reports on lobbying or political contributions and expenditures).

Examples of Unexplained Incongruencies

According to the Company Letter, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee began performing reviews of the Company's "political policies and practices, including political contributions and lobbying activities . . . in part to ensure overall compliance with corporate values and objectives" as of January 2014.

The Company implies that this "review" qualifies as implementation of the proposal's essential objective, yet the Proponent has found numerous unexplained political contributions made since that date which are in direct contrast to company policies and values. These seemingly incongruent contributions relate to a wide range of topics, including healthcare, LGBT equality, environmental protection, and smoking cessation/tobacco. CVS has also publically supported the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act,¹ as well as better access to lower cost health care, yet the Company has continued to support politicians which have been outspoken against this Act.

CVS Health’s own document entitled “Our Public Policy Principles” lays out the issues which could drive the Company’s and the EPAC’s political giving, including:

- Reducing Access to and Use of Tobacco to Improve Public Health and Reduce Health Care Costs
- Solutions for the Cost, Quality and Access Challenges
- Supporting Economic Growth, Jobs and Investment [specifically including “broad immigration reform” and “creating a path to legal status for those already here.”]

Additionally, CVS Health’s Environmental Commitment Statement declares that “As a company dedicated to improving people’s lives through innovative and high-quality health and pharmacy services, we are committed to operating in a manner that meets or exceeds applicable environmental regulations; reducing our environmental and climate-related impacts; and contributing to the long-term sustainability of our business.” This same policy notes that “Government [. . .] Monitoring environmental policy and legislation” is a cornerstone of the tactics crucial in supporting positive legislation regarding the environment. Yet, the Company has supported numerous politicians voting now on what have been considered key environmental votes.

On CVS Health’s “Diversity” webpage, viewers will find a plethora of sites touting the importance of diversity and equal opportunity at the company. These include the Company’s Supplier Diversity Program, the equal employment opportunity policy which states that “our continued success depends on the full participation of all qualified persons regardless of age, gender, gender identity or expression, marital status, sexual orientation . . .”, highlights of multicultural marketing initiatives, and various workforce diversity groups which have been “established by women, LGBT employees, veterans, and Latino, Portuguese and African Americans colleagues, to name a few.” Yet, the Company has supported numerous politicians who have voted against prohibiting job discrimination based on sexual orientation, and have voted in favor of banning same-sex marriage.

It is important to note finally that in February 2014, CVS Health Corporation announced that it would be removing all tobacco products from its 7,700 retail stores, replacing those items with smoking-cessation programs. This feat was crucial to the company’s intention to “bolster its image as a health care company” due to the fact that “sales [of tobacco] conflicted with its health care mission.”² As CEO Larry Merlo explained, “The contradiction of selling tobacco was becoming a growing obstacle to playing a bigger role in health care delivery.”³ Yet, in 2014, the CVS EPAC gave $4,000 in campaign funds to Congressman Whitfield despite his long and continued defense of the tobacco industry.

² <http://www.usatoday.com/story/news/nation/2014/09/03/cvs-steps-selling-tobacco-changes-name/14967821/>

³ <http://www.usatoday.com/story/news/nation/2014/09/03/cvs-steps-selling-tobacco-changes-name/14967821/>

And despite CVS Health’s Public Policy Principles’ statement that immigration reform, creating a pathway to legal status for immigrants, and an insistence that “We believe this immigration reform is critical to ensure that the United States remains globally competitive and able to attract needed workers at all skill levels to ensure its continued economic prosperity,” CVS Health has continued to give numerous contributions to politicians that seek to thwart immigration reform and the ability of immigrant workers to seek a path to citizenship. This includes contributions of $4,500 in 2014 to Texas Rep. Blake Farenthold who voted for an amendment to defund a program that would provide temporary legal status and halt a deportation ban on DREAMers (undocumented immigrants brought to the United States by their parents), and then stated that the “compassionate solution” to the problem would be to deport these children’s parents, while allowing the children to stay in the United States.⁴

Under the framework of the Proposal, it does not rest with the Proponent to determine which donations were incongruent; rather it rests with the company to explain how it analyzes the congruency of specific donations, and what overriding considerations cause it to provide donations despite incongruent voting records of some donation recipients.

The Proponent believes that these examples illustrate that while the Company may have put in place new evaluation procedures in advance of making political contributions, the Company has certainly not implemented the needed publication of an analysis explaining its assessments of congruency and whether and where it is making exceptions in contributions between its stated values priorities and the contributions to political candidates and campaigns.

CONCLUSION

The Company has not met its burden that the Proposal is excludable under Rule 14a-8(i)(10). Therefore, we request that the Staff inform the Company that the SEC proxy rules require denial of the Company’s no-action request. Please call me at (413) 549-7333 with respect to any questions in connection with this matter, or if the Staff wishes any further information.

Sincerely,

Sanford Lewis

APPENDIX A Text of the Shareholder Proposal

Alignment between Corporate Values and Political Contributions

Whereas:

The Supreme Court ruling in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission interpreted the First Amendment right of freedom of speech to include certain corporate political expenditures involving “electioneering communications,” which resulted in greater public and shareholder scrutiny;

Political contributions made by the company include inconsistencies between donations and corporate values. For instance, CVS’s Environmental Commitment Statement declares that “we are committed to . . . reducing our environmental and climate-related impacts; and contributing to the long-term sustainability of our business.” Yet since 2009, CVS EPAC designated over 30% of its contributions to politicians voting against the American Clean Energy and Security Act of 2009 and for deregulating greenhouse gases;

CVS has an equal employment opportunity policy which states that “our continued success depends on the full participation of all qualified persons regardless of age, gender, gender identity or expression, marital status, sexual orientation . . .” Yet since 2009, CVS EPAC designated more than 38% of its contributions to politicians voting against hate crimes legislation and the repeal of Don’t Ask Don’t Tell, and sponsoring the Federal Marriage Amendment Act, which would eliminate equal marriage rights across the nation;

Additionally, CVS paid $187,500 in dues used for political activities or advocacy to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, a group from which other corporations have distanced themselves due to its climate policies, raising shareholder concerns about the Company’s commitment to the environment;

Through contributions to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, CVS inadvertently supports the Institute for Legal Reform, which has ties to the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC). ALEC introduced and advocated for controversial and potentially discriminatory “Stand Your Ground” laws, which are being investigated for racial bias.

Resolved: Shareholders request that the Board of Directors report to shareholders annually at reasonable expense, excluding confidential information, a congruency analysis between corporate values as defined by CVS’s stated policies (including our Environmental Commitment Statement and our employment policy on Equal Opportunity) and Company and CVS EPAC political and electioneering contributions, including a list of any such contributions occurring during the prior year which raise an issue of misalignment with corporate values, and stating the justification for such exceptions.

Supporting Statement: Proponents recommend that Company management develop coherent criteria for determining congruency, such as identifying legislative initiatives that are considered most germane to core company values, and that the report include management’s analysis of risks to our company’s brand, reputation, or shareholder value, as well as acts of stewardship by the Company to inform funds recipients’ of company values, and the recipients’ divergence from those values, at the time contributions are made. “Expenditures for electioneering communications” means spending directly, or through a third party, at any time during the year, on printed, internet or broadcast communications, which are reasonably susceptible to interpretation as in support of or opposition to a specific candidate.

(Via e-mail: shareholderproposals@sec.gov)

Dear Sir or Madam:

On behalf of CVS Health Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company" or "CVS Health"), and in accordance with Rule 14a-8(j) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, I am filing this letter with respect to the shareholder proposal and supporting statement submitted by NorthStar Asset Management, Inc. Funded Pension Plan (the "Proponent") by letter dated November 25, 2014 (the "Proposal") for inclusion in the proxy materials that CVS Health intends to distribute in connection with its 2015 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "2015 Proxy Materials"). A copy of the Proposal and all related correspondence with the Proponent are attached as Exhibit A. I hereby request confirmation that the staff of the Office of Chief Counsel (the "Staff") will not recommend any enforcement action if, in reliance on Rule 14a-8, CVS Health omits the Proposal from its 2015 Proxy Materials.

Pursuant to Rule 14a-8(j), this letter is being filed with the Commission no later than 80 days before CVS Health files its definitive 2015 Proxy Materials. Pursuant to Staff Legal Bulletin No. 14D (CF), Shareholder Proposals (Nov. 7, 2008) question C, I have submitted this letter to the Commission via e-mail to shareholderproposals@sec.gov.

Rule 14a-8(k) and Section E of SLB 14D provide that shareholder proponents are required to send companies a copy of any correspondence the Proponent elects to submit to the Commission or the staff of the Division of Corporation Finance (the "Staff"). Accordingly, I am taking this opportunity to inform the Proponent that if the Proponent elects to submit additional correspondence to the Commission or the Staff with respect to this Proposal, a copy of that correspondence should be furnished concurrently to the Company.

Pursuant to Rule 14a-8(j), a copy of this submission is being sent simultaneously to the Proponent as notification of the Company's intention to omit the Proposal from its 2015 Proxy Materials. This letter constitutes the Company's statement of the reasons that it deems the omission of the Proposal to be proper.

The Proposal

The Proposal states:

“RESOLVED: Shareholders request that the Board of Directors report to shareholders annually at reasonable expense, excluding confidential information, a congruency analysis between corporate values as defined by CVS’s stated policies (including our Environmental Commitment Statement and our employment policy on Equal Opportunity) and Company and CVS EPAC political and electioneering contributions, including a list of any such contributions occurring during the prior year which raise an issue of misalignment with corporate values, and stating the justification for such exceptions.”

The Proposal is preceded by a five-paragraph preamble that discusses the Company’s Environmental Commitment Statement and focuses on the Company’s corporate expenditures in support of politicians who have opposed hate crimes legislation and supported the Federal Marriage Amendment Act in various ways, as well as its membership in the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Statement of Reasons to Exclude

The Company believes that the Proposal may be properly excluded from the 2015 Proxy Materials under Rule 14a-8(i)(10) because the Company has already substantially implemented the Proposal.

Pursuant to Rule 14a-8(i)(10), the Proposal is excludable because the Company has already established committees that analyze political contributions to ensure, among other things, general compliance with corporate values, both at the outset before making expenditures and after expenditures occur. Furthermore, the Company’s management has already enacted reporting guidelines that require public disclosure and greater transparency of political contributions, allowing shareholders to analyze the congruencies between spending and corporate policies. Thus, the Company believes that implementation of the Proposal is redundant in light of current policies, procedures and reports.

I hereby respectfully request that the Staff concur in the Company’s view that the Proposal may be excluded from the 2015 Proxy Materials pursuant to Rule 14a-8(i)(10).

The Proposal May be Excluded Pursuant to Rule 14a-8(i)(10) Because the Proposal Has Already Been Substantially Implemented by the Company.

Under 14a-8(i)(10), a shareholder proposal is excludable from proxy materials when a company’s management has already substantially implemented the proposal. The Staff has stated that “a determination that the company has substantially implemented the proposal depends upon whether [the company’s] particular policies, practices and procedures compare favorably with the guidelines of the proposal.” Texaco, Inc. (March 28, 1991). Substantial implementation requires satisfactory compliance with both the proposal’s underlying concerns and its essential objective. See Id.

As disclosed on the CVS Health Political Activities and Contributions page of the CVS Health website, attached hereto as Exhibit B, CVS Health, “in a move towards greater transparency and per shareholder requests, [CVS Health] report[s] [political] contributions in [a] Political Activities and Contributions report,” attached hereto as Exhibit C. The annual report of political contributions published on the Company’s website includes all contributions that the Company makes at both the federal and state levels of government. CVS Health has a policy governing political contributions made from corporate and Employee Political Action Committee (EPAC) funds, and an EPAC Steering Committee (the “Steering Committee”), comprised exclusively of senior officers, that reviews expenditures and ensures that the EPAC spends in accordance with general corporate values and objectives. In addition, CVS Health complies with the Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995, submitting to Congress semi-annual reports that include a list of EPAC contributions to federal candidates. Therefore, the Company’s policy of publishing annual reports concerning political spending, along with the review process conducted by the Steering Committee, substantially complies with the Proposal’s underlying concerns and essential objectives, and implementation of the Proposal would result in corporate redundancies, less shareholder disclosure and an inefficiency of management.

The underlying concern of the Proposal is to ensure congruency between political spending and core company values. As a method of achieving this congruency, the Proposal asks that management publish an annual list of any political contributions that fail to align with corporate values. The crux of the Proposal, as stated in the bottom lines of the resolution itself, appears to be the publishing of a list of incongruencies. Accordingly, CVS Health already substantially complies with the underlying concern because it publishes an annual list of all state and federal political contributions. This list is readily accessible to both shareholders and the public. Furthermore, instead of granting management the discretion of determining whether a particular government contribution is congruent with corporate values, the Company’s report goes beyond the Proposal by providing shareholders with information concerning all expenditures, thereby allowing shareholders to examine congruencies individually.

The essential goal of the Proposal is for management to perform an analysis of the congruencies between expenditures and corporate values. Beginning in January 2014, the Company’s Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”), comprised of independent members of its Board of Directors, reviews the Company’s political policies and practices, including political contributions and lobbying activities. The Committee reviews those policies, practices and expenditures in part to ensure overall compliance with corporate values and objectives.

Because it is impossible for every political contribution to benefit the Company’s interests down the line, and political candidates and organizations have a variety of different viewpoints and interests, CVS Health adopts a holistic analysis when ensuring congruency with corporate objectives and values. No one political candidate or organization can adhere to every value or interest of a company as diverse and expansive as CVS Health. Thus, the type of holistic analysis conducted by the Committee is both necessary and reasonable. Moreover, the Company's General Counsel and Chief Health Strategy Officer regularly reviews EPAC expenditures with overall corporate objectives and values in mind, spending only for the purpose of advancing CVS Health's interests as a whole, thereby ensuring the general congruency of expenditures with Company objectives and values.

In addition, the Steering Committee reviews and approves all EPAC contributions, as a good business practice and to ensure compliance with all laws and regulations. Although no detailed piecemeal analysis is conducted of every expenditure, a holistic analysis is conducted to ensure compliance with corporate objectives and values. The Steering Committee does not approve an expenditure unless it finds both legal soundness and overall alignment with the Company's objectives and principles. Thus, the Proposal essentially requests that the Company adopt an analysis of spending incongruencies after-the-fact when that analysis is already performed before-the-fact. The Company believes that requiring that management determine, at its discretion, whether an individual line item of political spending is congruent with all corporate values, once it has already determined at the outset that all expenditures are not incongruent with overall corporate values and objectives, is unnecessary and a waste of corporate resources.

The Company respectfully requests the Staff's concurrence with its decision to omit the Proposal from the 2015 Proxy Materials and further requests the confirmation that the Staff will not recommend any enforcement action. Please call the undersigned at (401) 770-5409 if you should have any questions or need additional information or as soon as a Staff response is available.

Respectfully yours,

LEGAL DÉPARTMENT

Dear Ms. McIntosh:

Considering the recent Supreme Court decision of Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission and past public backlash against corporate political spending, we are concerned about our Company's potential exposure to risks caused by our future electioneering contributions.

Therefore as the beneficial owner, as defined under Rule 13(d)-3 of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act of 1934, of more than $2,000 worth of shares of CVS Health common stock held for more than one year, the NorthStar Asset Management Funded Pension Plan is submitting for inclusion in the next proxy statement, in accordance with Rule 14a-8 of the General Rules, the enclosed shareholder proposal. The proposal requests that the Board of Directors report on the congruency between corporate values and political contributions.

As required by Rule 14a-8, the NorthStar Asset Management, Inc Funded Pension Plan has held these shares for more than one year and will continue to hold the requisite number of shares through the date of the next stockholders' annual meeting. Proof of ownership will be provided within 10 business days. I or my appointed representative will be present at the annual meeting to introduce the proposal.

A commitment from CVS Health to report on the congruency between corporate values and political and electioneering contributions will allow this resolution to be withdrawn. We believe that this proposal is in the best interest of our Company and its shareholders.

Sincerely,

Julie N.W. Goodridge

ALEC introduced and advocated for controversial and potentially discriminatory "Stand Your Ground" laws, which are being investigated for racial bias.

Resolved: Shareholders request that the Board of Directors report to shareholders annually at reasonable expense, excluding confidential information, a congruency analysis between corporate values as defined by CVS's stated policies (including our Environmental Commitment Statement and our employment policy on Equal Opportunity) and Company and CVS EPAC political and electioneering contributions, including a list of any such contributions occurring during the prior year which raise an issue of misalignment with corporate values, and stating the justification for such exceptions.

Supporting Statement: Proponents recommend that Company management develop coherent criteria for determining congruency, such as identifying legislative initiatives that are considered most germane to core company values, and that the report include management's analysis of risks to our company's brand, reputation, or shareholder value, as well as acts of stewardship by the Company to inform funds recipients' of company values, and the recipients' divergence from those values, at the time contributions are made. "Expenditures for electioneering communications" means spending directly, or through a third party, at any time during the year, on printed, internet or broadcast communications, which are reasonably susceptible to interpretation as in support of or opposition to a specific candidate.

Our Political Activities and Contributions

[Political Contributions Report \[PDF - 565 KB\]](#)

[Trade Association Dues Report \[PDF - 165 KB\]](#)

CVS Health participates in the political process to help shape public policy and address legislation that has a direct impact on the company. The engagement ensures that the interests of our business, customers, shareholders and employees are fairly represented at all levels of government.

It is CVS Health's policy that the CEO and the Board are responsible for determining the company's policy and political interests, and how to further those interests in a manner consistent with applicable laws. Specifically, as of January 2014, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will review and consider the Company's policies and practices, including expenditures, regarding political contributions, and direct and indirect lobbying. It will also review and consider the company's policies and practices regarding other significant public policy issues, which the Board may determine from time to time.

Our Public Policy Principles outline our priorities for participating in the public policy sphere. We are committed to addressing health costs, quality and access, because ensuring people get the right care, at the right time and in the right setting reflects our company purpose. We work with federal and state policymakers, others in our industry, the broader business community and nonprofit and civic partners to advance policies that will improve health outcomes. The list on the right provides an overview of our focus areas. For more information visit the Public Policy Principles on our website.

Lobbying Activity

Lobbying is highly regulated in the United States, and we comply with applicable U.S. federal and state laws, including the Lobbying Disclosure Act and Honest Leadership and Open Government Act that require reporting on lobbying activities and certification of compliance with Congressional gift rules. Our company's federal lobbying reports can be found on the Lobbying Disclosures website. In 2014, we will be adding more content on our web-site to make the information more accessible and provide additional context on our lobbying efforts.

Our Government Affairs team represents the company's point of view in Washington, D.C. and in state capitals around the country. We focus on legislative and public policy issues that impact the company's delivery of pharmacy care and long-term business interests, and communicate with policymakers and stakeholders on issues that impact our business.

Political Donations

As a public corporation, CVS Health is prohibited by federal law from making contributions to candidates or political parties in federal elections. We make contributions at the state level, as allowed by state laws. All of the company's contributions promote the interests of the company and are made without regard for the private political preferences of company officers and executives. A listing of our 2013 political donations at the state and local level, including candidates, political parties and ballot initiatives, is available in the Political Activities and Contributions report.

Employees Political Action

As with many corporations, we offer certain eligible employees an opportunity to participate in the political process by voluntarily contributing to our company's Employees Political Action Committee (EPAC). Political contributions to federal candidates, political party committees and political action committees are made by our EPAC. Consistent with federal law, CVS Health pays the administrative, solicitation and compliance costs of the committee.

The EPAC is subject to comprehensive regulation by the federal government, including detailed disclosure requirements.

Under the Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995, CVS Health submits to Congress semi-annual reports, which also include a listing of EPAC's contributions to federal candidates. In a move toward greater transparency and per shareholder requests, we report these contributions in the Political Activities and Contributions report on our website. Included on our website are disclosures of the contributions the EPAC also makes at the state level. We operate employee-funded state Political Action Committees (PACs) in Rhode Island, Massachusetts and New York.

CVS Health has a policy governing political contributions made from corporate and EPAC funds to ensure that all potential political contributions made by or on behalf of CVS Health or an EPAC are reviewed and approved internally for compliance with all federal, state and local laws, and that all of the company's political activities are conducted in accordance with high ethical standards. This policy applies to all employees of CVS Health, and each of its subsidiaries and affiliates. CVS Health does not make any independent expenditures in federal, state or local elections.

Trade Association Participation

CVS Health participates in various federal and state trade associations or organizations that operate in support of specific industries. Trade associations participate in activities such as education, advertising and lobbying to influence public policy. Many associations offer other services, such as producing conferences, networking or charitable events or offering classes or educational material. Some associations also make political contributions or operate a PAC.

In 2013, CVS Health paid approximately $4.6 million in dues to trade and industry associations. Details regarding 2013 membership dues can be found in our annual Trade Association Dues Report, along with our past reports. These reports include the amount paid for advocacy and/or political purposes for any trade or industry association with annual total dues of $25,000 or more.
